GENTLEMEN-Though the destruction of the Amst rican Museum has proved a serious loss to myself and the public. I am happy to verify the old adage, that, It's an ill wind that blows nobedy good," and, consequently, congratulate you that your well-known saies have again demonstrated their superior freproof qualities in an ordeal of unusual severity. The safe you made for me some time ago was in the office of the Museum, on the second floor, back part the debris, and on opening it this day has yielded up its concents in very good order-books; papers, poli-
